

Minutes of the Hopkinton Police Commission Meeting of 4/08/2021

The meeting was called to order at 3:38pm. Present: Chief Palmer, Captain Carrier, Phil Scalise. Geoff Cook and Bob Marvel.

Old Business:

Status of the search for a replacement for the Town Manager's position, currently on hold.

911 numbering efforts will reengage right after new town budget is set. Chief Palmer was able to speak with Sherri Desjardin on restarting the effort as well, as she was so instrumental in everything accomplished to date.

New Business: Minutes of the 3/11/21 meeting were reviewed. There was a motion to approve by Geoff, seconded by Phil, and the motion carried.

A new proprietor of the Pavillion, Anthony Restivo met with the Chief and the Captain, and explained their plan for a family oriented venue at the venture, called Little Rhody Lobster.

Chief Palmer attended a ^{Zoom} conference offered by the Police Chief's association that provided education on facial profile and racial bias in the policing environment.

Chief attended a meeting at the Rockville Mill complex. They discussed the possibility of having an officer present at their regular meetings to help all to get ahead of any issues that are occurring there.

New officer Carpenter set up and supported a zoom conference for career day, that was very successful.

Police Log: Police log: there was one non-fatal overdose; there are 17 application for ccl's pending now.

It is formally noted here, that Steven Shea has retired from the HPD after 34 distinguished years as our third shift dispatch. Steve will be missed in this difficult position.

Motion to adjourn at 4:39 pm by Geoff, seconded by Phil, and the motion carried.

Respectfully Submitted for review

Phil Scalise
