Al, Thanks. I deleted my TC colleagues to avoid town business discussed on the internet by the TC majority.

Any suggestions for a resolution for the R.I. General Assembly please advise. My real concern is seeing Senate President Dominick Ruggerio as a sponsor! Senators email-*(last name)sen-morgan@rilegislature.gov or Representatives rep-kennedy@rilegislature.gov. or rep-price@rilegislature.gov. Don't forget the hyphen between the office and last name.

If you hold an office mention it. It shows your credentials. Scott 401-677-9503. P.S. TC Meeting Tonight.

Good Morning, All...

As I've mentioned previously, this is precisely the kind of proposal that we need to stop in its tracks.

While the goal of affordable housing is certainly laudable, this is not the way to go about it. Usurping local control is unconscionable.

I urge you to read the entire proposed legislation and then contact your legislators to voice your opposition.

If you thought the solar debacle was tragic, this could turn our world upside down.

Thanks and best to all,
